

Dr. Viola Pierce

Turn Your Knowledge Into Wealth

PROFESSIONAL BIO

My name is Dr. Viola Pierce. I am the CEO and the founder of the VP of Nursing Leadership, Training, and Coaching. I am a nurse with more than 25 years of experience. I have worked in various specialties in nursing including urgent care, OB/GYN, home health, and nursing homes. The bulk of my career has been spent in emergency medicine.

I have a unique eye for understanding the gaps in the industry. When you, as nurses, can utilize the knowledge you already know, monetizing the knowledge through profitable business practices, creating healthier communities it becomes a game-changer not only for your region but also for your family. Our goal is to change the face of healthcare as we know it along with changing our family situation. This is when you can work from anywhere around the world making money with the purpose that God originally designed for you.
