"Investing with Trey was a phenomenal experience. In addition to getting a 30% return on my capital invested, I also gained a lot of knowledge with Trey. He is highly educated in the field of real estate and doesn't hesitate to share his knowledge with you. If you have any questions regarding your investment or any personal deals you're working on, he is super quick to respond. I would highly recommend to other investors looking to diversify their investments. If the opportunity presents itself again, I will definitely be investing/partnering with Trey on future deals."
